Welcome Graduates, Family, and Friends

The Spencerville Church would like to welcome the many guests we have today celebrating the graduation of our high school seniors. Many of you have spent hours praying, thinking, planning, and paying for these students. We're sure there is a measure of pride, as well as a tear of joy mixed with sadness, as the individual who only yesterday was starting school is now one day closer to completing their education. We also care about your student and will remember to pray for them (and you) as they begin the next step on their educational journey. Don't forget to connect with us by filling out the Connection card found in your bulletin. Drop it in the offering plate or at the Welcome Desk.

We are also always pleased to have music presented by our school ensembles, specifically this morning the bells, choir, and orchestra.

Condolences

We are sad to announce the unexpected death of Lester Brown (81) this past Sabbath, May 25. Lester and his wife, Gloria, transferred to Spencerville in March 2016. Lester now rests until Jesus comes. Please keep Gloria and their family in your prayers.

Congratulations Graduates

The Spencerville Church offers congratulations to all Spencerville Adventist Academy (SAA) graduates.

This past Thursday the graduation service for the Eighth Grade class was held here in the Sanctuary. This is a milestone for them that represents the end of elementary school and the beginning of their high school experience. Please pray for this class as they move forward in their education whether continuing on at SAA or to other schools.

It won't be hard to realize that today's service is part of a four-event weekend celebrating the graduation of SAA high school seniors. Last night they held their Consecration service. Today's service is a more reflective, spiritual event prior to their Class Night this evening and the actual Commencement that will happen tomorrow (a ticketed event).

Please read and enjoy the senior biographies as you get to know each senior a little better before they leave for other educational endeavors. As always let us pray for each of them as they move forward, that they take Jesus with them allowing Him to guide their next life choices.

Thank You

Thank you, dear church family, for all the expressions of comfort and caring through many cards, phone calls, text messages, and food as I work through the grief and loss in the loss of my dear husband, Bob. So grateful—Kathy Pinnick
