Welcome — Let's Connect!

We are happy you have chosen to worship with us this morning. The Connection Card is a great way to communicate. Please take a moment to fill in the blanks and let us know from where you are visiting. For guests and members, the card provides you with the opportunity to make decisions for Jesus, respond to the sermon, communicate a prayer need or praise, or give a critique that you feel will help our pastoral team to continue our own professional growth. Whether guest or member, when your card has been filled out, drop the card in the offering plates at the doors or turn it in at the Welcome Desk in the Foyer.

Music Notes

Today's worship theme reminds us of the Gospel message promised throughout Scripture. With the Easter season approaching, we are reminded of the death and resurrection of Christ, thus promising us everlasting life.

The music text this morning reflects two messages of hope. The offertory is a promise coming from God to man, and a prayer returned from man towards heaven. Craig Courtney's, "Peace I Give to You" quotes John 14:27, saying: "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

The anthem, "Cantique de Jean Racine," is composed by Gabriel Faure. It was dedicated to Cesar Franck, whom is represented in the postlude today. The text comes from French poet, Jean Racine, who writes (translated to English):

...O Christ, look kindly on your faithful people
Assembled now to glorify you.
Receive the songs that we offer to your immortal glory
And let us depart, crowned with your gifts.

Meet Our New Members!

The Imbraguglio family comes to us from Sligo Adventist Church, strengthening their ties to the Spencerville Church family since their eldest child became a student at SAA. David is the son of Spencerville member, Ruth Imbraguglio. David and his wife, Jennifer, are both radiologic technologists. David works at White Oak Medical Center, and Jennifer works at Shady Grove. They have three daughters, Victoria, 11; Natalie, 4; and Caroline, almost 2. The family enjoys attending the first worship service and the girls enjoy their Sabbath School classes here.

Tanesha Forbes-Gibbs was baptized in 1987 in Jamaica, and has been attending the Olney Adventist Church. She has four children, Aaron, 14; Justin, 13; Nathan, 10; and Cierra, 7. Aaron and Nathan attend Takoma Academy, and Justin and Cierra attend SAA.

Special Welcome

Today the adult Sabbath School class that meets in the Sanctuary will feature a special guest. At 10:00 a.m., we welcome world-renowned conductor, Herbert Blomstedt. Dr. Blomstedt, a Seventh-day Adventist, will speak on the timelessness of hymnody in worship. As a part of this feature, he will be interviewed by our organist, Mark Willey, and Costin Jordache of the Adventist Review. This special feature will preempt the study on the Sabbath School lesson in the Sanctuary. Our other regular adult classes are invited and welcome to attend this special not-to-be-missed program, but may choose to meet as usual.
