Meet Our New Members

Linda Dintino arrived to our area this past February. She, and her son, Peter, moved to here because she has a sister nearby as well as some other friends. She owns her own business, called Provider One, which provides medical scribes for physicians. She and Peter are eager to become involved in Spencerville church activities. They were only able to attend in person a couple of times before the COVID-19 lock-down.

Adeline Piotrowski moved here about a year ago to attend graduate school at George Washington University where she is finishing a master's degree in international affairs. Unexpectedly she landed a job with the Department of Homeland Security and now she is going to school full-time and working full-time. Before COVID-19 she had attended Spencerville with her friends and really appreciated the church environment and music.

Tomorrow: A Bitter-Sweet Farewell

Pastor Gaspar Colon has retired from being a full-time, "paid" pastor. He and May-Ellen, will be leaving our area at the end of this month, but we can hardly feel sorry for them because they are relocating to Hawaii—just in time for the Maryland winter to set in. Their two adult children, and their granddaughters live in the immediate area where they will be moving. We have scheduled a drive-through farewell for them here at the church tomorrow, from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Plan to stop by to say "so long" and wish them well.

Substitute Teachers Needed

Spencerville Adventist Academy is in need of substitute teachers now that we are back on campus. You need not be a teacher to be a substitute. If you are interested please contact Brittany Thorp at bthorp@spencerville.org for more information.
