Meet Our New Members

Peter Delhove is the third generation of missionaries in his family; and though he is of Belgian origin, he has basically lived in Africa most of his life. He met his wife, Vidette, in South Africa, and since then they have moved six times. They have two sons, one who was baptized at Spencerville, and so Spencerville feels very much like home to them. Vidette has a degree in education. They moved here in December of 2019 and COVID-19 has definitely changed their lives. Though they know quite a few people through their years in mission work, they do not get together often with friends. Peter is working from home which is extremely unusual after all his years in mission work. They enjoy Spencerville because of the music and because Pastor Chad reminds them of their pastor who they dearly loved in South Africa.

Originally from Malawi, Maria Senzani is now a junior at Towson University studying for a degree in special education. She is eager to teach elementary or middle school students. She is looking forward to the day when she can assist in any of the children's or middle school Sabbath Schools once we are able to regather.

New Address for the Colón's

A couple of weeks ago we bid a fond farewell to Pastor Gaspar and May-Ellen. This past week they officially left Maryland and are now in Hawaii. Although we were assured that they will still be staying quite busy in ministry, we are sure they will be enjoying their retirement and living in close proximity to their children and grandchildren. Their new address follows and they would enjoy hearing from you!
