Camille Laborde has been attending Spencerville Church with his beautiful family for more than 6 months. The warmth of the church community has inspired him to transfer. He loves God and is looking forward to serving in the church. His wife, Arminda, and their two young daughters, Gina and Zafira, who primarily speak Spanish, are enjoying the fellowship and deep warmth from the Spanish class and Children's Sabbath School.

Henrry Montez Tarrillo came to the United States to study Behavioral Science at the University of Delaware. He was a pastor in Peru for 15 years, mostly preaching on the subject of health. He recently has been visiting Adventist churches in the northeast United States teaching about health prevention.
