Pastor Chad Stuart

Welcome

We're glad to have you with us! This weekend marks thirty years since I began my journey as a follower of Jesus. It's been a path of purpose, growth, and at times, challenge. Following Jesus has always come with a cost, and in today's world, that cost is becoming more visible.

To follow Him is to live by a set of values that often stand in contrast to the culture around us. That tension isn't occasional, it's something every genuine follower will experience.

So how do we remain steady and faithful in the face of growing opposition? The prophet Jeremiah offers a powerful answer. I look forward to exploring that with you in today's message.
